

INALIENABLE: IMMIGRANT RIGHTS

YOUTH VOICES FROM WORLD WAR II & POST 9/11

◆ Personal stories ◆ Cultural Performances ◆ Video ◆
Multicultural, intergenerational dialogue on challenges to civil liberties during wartime

Saturday April 12, 2008 1-4 PM

Oakland Museum of California
1000 Oak Street (at 10th St), Oakland

FREE ADMISSION - RSVP appreciated

for info/to RSVP contact NJAHS : (415) 921-5007 email: njahs@njahs.org

Presented by:

Enemy Alien Files Consortium and Partners The Oakland Museum of California

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness..."
- Preamble, U.S. Declaration of Independence, July 4, 1776

Visit www.enemyalienfiles.org

Major funding support from the California Civil Liberties Public Education Program