AWRIC Report and Video

HERE, IN AMERICA?

THE ASSEMBLY ON WARTIME RELOCATION & INTERNMENT OF CIVILIANS

Here, In America?-The Assembly on Wartime Relocation & Internment of Civilians (AWRIC) was held in April, 2005 at Hastings College of the Law in San Francisco. The public testimonial event involved over 23 community organizations, more than 64 participants, and scores of staff and volunteers. This historic gathering served to document and preserve the little known WWII stories of immigrants of German, Italian and Japanese ancestry (in the US and from Latin America) as well as the experiences of the Arab, Muslim and South Asian communities targeted as "the enemy" today.

Highlighted were remembrances of individuals and families who were among over 31,000 "potentially dangerous" people interned under the WWII enemy alien program.

In May, 2006, a community delegation delivered copies of the AWRIC Report and Video to the US Congress and Inter-American Commission on Human Rights in Washington, D.C.

"Very dramatic testimonies, perceptive comments & questions from reviewers."

"It exceeded our expectations—the individual stories brought out the human costs of mistaken policies of our country."
